Professional & Leadership Development Certificates

About the programme:

Professional & Leadership Development Certificates ©. INTRODUCTION: Equipped with the resources you need to drive maximum results, use data from your organization to apply what you learn immediately to your own leadership training. Evaluate leadership competencies and behaviors and their relation to your organizational and workforce needs. Analyse various assessment models that can support your leadership initiative. Learn to evaluate both your organization's program and off-the-shelf offerings. WHY SHOULD I ATTEND? • Discover the components you need to design best-in-class leadership

Objectives:

Developing participants' skills, knowledge, values and professional approaches in:

a. Ensure alignment of a leadership development program to an organization's culture, vision, mission, and goals, as well as competencies, customers' requirements, and business needs.

b. Select and implement appropriate learning methods.

c. List content and competencies that must be included in a leadership development program.

d. List observable behaviors that display a leader's ability to demonstrate the competencies.

e. Discuss a hierarchy of competencies and content for entry, mid-level, and executives.

f. Utilize process planning checklists and other job aids to create a leadership development program.

g. Measure and link the value of a leadership development program to an organization's bottom line.

h. Discern the advantages, disadvantages, and appropriate use of off-the-shelf leadership development programs.

i. Implement questionnaires, assessment methods, and self-evaluation tools presented in the leadership development program.

j. Incorporate best practices in leadership needs assessments, implementation, and when identifying high potential candidates for leadership programs.

Target audience:

a. Learning and development managers designing leadership programmes.

b. Instructional designers with responsibility for leadership learning.

c. Talent development specialists assessing leadership competencies.

Daily programme:

• Day 1: Organisational readiness and the case for leadership development

a. Organisational readiness audit and the critical success factors for leadership development

b. Why leadership development programmes fail and how to prevent the most common causes

c. Building the business case for investing in leadership development

d. The audiences for leadership development: sponsors, participants and their managers

e. Case study: reviewing a stalled leadership programme and diagnosing the causes of its failure

f. Day output: organisational readiness checklist for a leadership development programme

• Day 2: The LEADS model and the programme timeline

a. The LEADS model for building a leadership development programme

b. The five LEADS phases: foundation, future vision, action plan, developmental elements and sustainability

c. Leadership and management: distinguishing the two roles and the competences each requires

d. Planning milestones, decision points and responsibilities for each phase

e. Workshop: mapping the five LEADS phases onto a realistic timeline for the participant organisation

f. Day output: phased programme timeline with milestones and owners

  b. Measuring the four levels of evaluation: reaction, learning, behaviour and results

  c. Return on expectations (ROE) and return on investment (ROI): how they differ and when to use each

  d. Linking programme value to the organisation's bottom line in executive language

  e. Workshop: presenting a complete leadership development programme design for peer review

  f. Day output: complete leadership development programme design with an improvement plan

Training methods and certificates:

Our programmes are built on modern pedagogy that combines theoretical knowledge with practical application, in line with participants' needs and the demands of the workplace. Methods include:

· Interactive workshops: analysis of real data and group discussions that strengthen practical understanding.

· Case studies: examples from international organisations that highlight real successes and challenges.

· Realistic simulations: participants train through professional scenarios that mirror real situations requiring decisions and situation management.

· Advanced tools and technologies: hands-on practice with up-to-date training software and tools suited to each field.

Certificates:

On successful completion, participants receive a certificate issued by CINPAA, a training institute officially registered in the European Union, Spain and the United Kingdom.

CINPAA - Cooperative International for Training and Consulting

Our programmes are delivered within academic and professional partnerships, cooperation agreements and memoranda of understanding with a number of academic and professional institutions, including:

- Camilo José Cela University - Spain
- ISDE - Law & Business School - International
- Professional Development Institute - United Kingdom

These partnerships aim to exchange expertise, develop training content and raise programme quality in line with international best practice.
